1st Sarcoma Symposium of Southeast Europe – 1st SSSE

13. NOVEMBER 2025.

SHERATON DUBROVNIK RIVIERA HOTEL
SREBRENO, CROATIA

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to the 1st Sarcoma Symposium of Southeast Europe (1st SSSE), which will take place on 13 November 2025. at the Sheraton Dubrovnik Riviera Hotel, Srebreno.

The Croatian Society for Medical Oncology of the Croatian Medical Chamber (HDIO), Mesenchymal Tumor Section, is proud to host this inaugural event. The symposium will precede the 17th Congress of the Croatian Society for Medical Oncology, which begins later the same afternoon.

The 1st Sarcoma Symposium of Southeast Europe will bring together specialists from the region involved in the treatment of soft tissue and bone sarcomas, including surgeons, orthopedists, maxillofacial surgeons, pathologists, oncologists, and radiologists. The goal of this event is to foster interdisciplinary collaboration and provide a platform for sharing the latest research, technological innovations, and clinical experiences, with a special focus on sarcoma management in this part of Europe.

Renowned international and regional experts will lead the scientific program, offering valuable insights into advances in diagnostics, treatment, and patient outcomes.

Sincerely,
Davorin Herceg
